Participant Quotes:

“The program affirmed in me the calling to ministry in the church, and has led me to investigate graduate degrees. This week was a light and an arrow marker on the path to my future.”

“Catholics on Call is all about connection. You meet others, share stories, gain new insight and dust off the things you already knew, but are learning again. CoC extends the Catholic community and creates a space for a particular type of discussion to begin and to continue.”

“Catholics on Call really helped me to start discerning religious life. It was great to be in supportive environment with other young adults discerning their vocations. The experience helped me to admit that something in my life was missing, that God was calling me elsewhere and that I needed to explore my thoughts about religious life - and helped me to start taking concrete steps in my discernment.
