2015
SUMMER CONFERENCE
August 4 – 8, 2015

"Catholics on Call is a life-changing experience."

Thinking about a life of service in the Church as a lay minister, or perhaps a religious sister, brother or priest? Need some time to explore, learn and listen?

Each summer, young adults (age 18-30) get away from the hectic pace of their lives and come together to share stories, dreams and concerns. You'll gain insight from renowned speakers and skilled church ministers, and have the time to listen as God speaks within you.

It's a no-pressure experience that provides you with a better understanding of vocation, prayer, and discernment, and offers skills that will support you as you make decisions for your future.

The Young Adult Conference takes place at Catholic Theological Union in Chicago. The fee is $100 (contact us if assistance is needed). Space is limited. Apply today at www.catholicsoncall.org. For more information, call 773.371.5431 or email catholicsoncall@ctu.edu.

"The conference helped me to see ministry as a lifestyle."

Catholics on Call (CoC) is a program of The Bernardin Center at Catholic Theological Union, Chicago, and was originally funded by the Lilly Endowment, Inc. CoC thanks associate sponsors Calumet College, Lewis University, Loyola University, Chicago, St. Joseph's College and University of St. Francis.
